

GI Weekly Newsletter

MAY 3rd, 2018

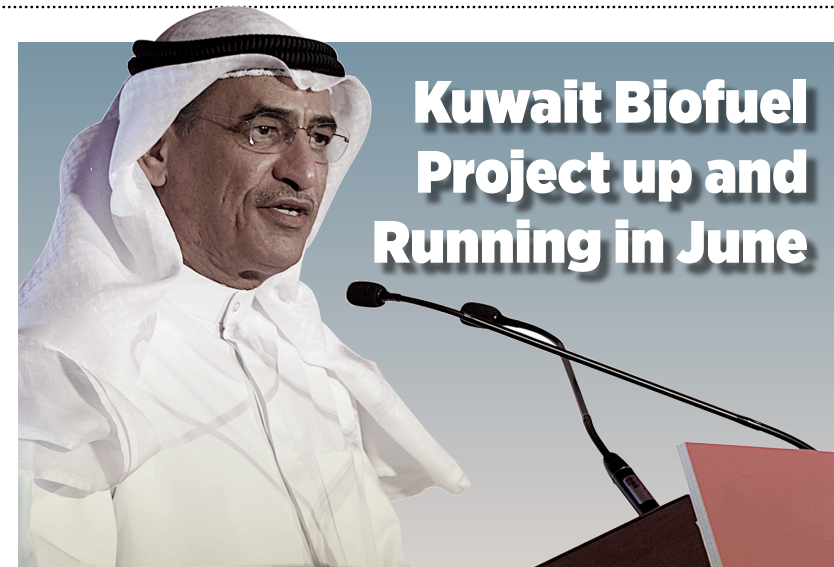

Trump Suggests Meeting Kim on Border as South Korean Leader Touts Nobel

Japan's Inpex Takes Lead on ADNOC Offshore Concession Development

Kuwait Biofuel Project up and Running in June

Oil & Gas Industry Can Drive growth of Knowledge-Based Economy

شركة تنمية نفط عُمان
Petroleum Development Oman

REPORT OF THE MONTH

How US Sanctions on Iran May Impact Energy Markets

GI ENERGY THINGS TO THINK ABOUT...

World Not on Track to Meet 2030 Energy Targets for Sustainable Development

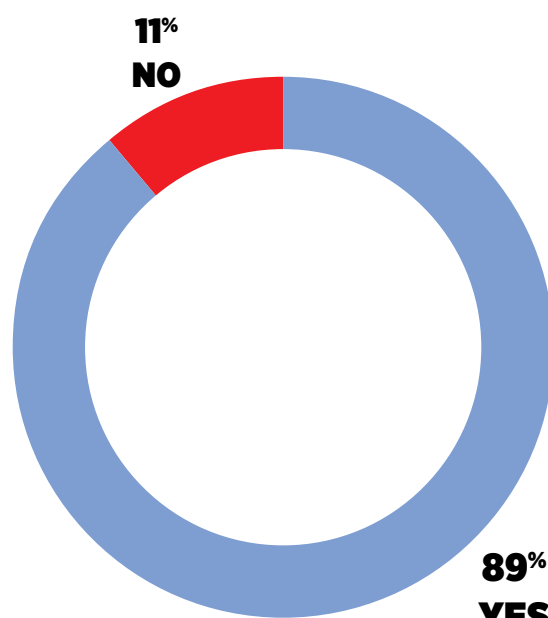

More Than 26,000 Omani Citizens Employed in Omanization Push

IN NUMBERS

Between 2016 and 2020, the US is expected to account for about half of the 20 billion cubic feet per day of new LNG export capacity worldwide – should this market revolution compel the Middle East to Accelerate its transformation into a more liquid, flexible and transparent LNG market?

GI Gulf Intelligence

Source: GI Research; Q3 2018

TOP 3 TWEETS THIS WEEK

Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · May 1

Marathon buying and endeavor shows you can teach an old #refiner new tricks bloom.bg/2Kpfg5U via @gadfly @MarathonPetroCo #OOTT

Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · Apr 30

Is the #fuel #oilmarket ready for tighter carbon and sulphur emissions rules on shipping? bit.ly/2Fshtda #IMO2020 #OOTT #LNG

Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · Apr 29

.@Duqm_Refinery eyes global markets for #fuel exports bit.ly/2KnL2A8 #petroleum #GDP #OOTT

