

GI Weekly Newsletter

JUNE 21st, 2018

Iran's Oil Minister Blames Trump for High Oil Price

Adnoc Seeks More Value Creation as it Transforms Into an Integrated company

Trump's Spectre Looms Over Tense OPEC Meeting

Expansion Projects at Fujairah Port Build on Recent Progress

REPORT OF THE MONTH

Vitol to Launch Australia's Biggest IPO in Years

IPO

A Ghost Army of Workers is Paid to do Nothing in the Gulf

Mubadala Completes Egypt Gasfield Acquisition

"I expect OPEC and non-OPEC to keep cuts in place. My opinion is the world of energy requires longer periods of stability, both on the oil price side and in the relationship between members and non-members of OPEC, before any major decisions on oil cuts can be taken."

Olga Labai
Director, Oil & Gas Consultants

Source: GI Research

TOP 3 TWEETS THIS WEEK

Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · 16h

#Saudi energy minister hints #oil output could rise cnnmon.ie/2yrgRX7
@SaudiMEIM @JDeferiosCNN #OOTT #OPECSeminar

Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · Jun 19

#OPEC gathering is shaping up to be one of the most contentious in years, as Iran, Iraq and Venezuela lobby against hiking output... #OOTT

Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · Jun 18

Petroleum Minister @dpradhanbjp will raise India's concerns about rising #CRUDEOIL prices at #OPEC #Vienna meet bit.ly/2t6zNFr #OOTT

