

WALTER SIMPSON

MANAGING DIRECTOR, CCED

Walter Simpson joined the CCED Team in January 2018 as the Managing Director. He is an inspirational leader with the ability to transform the culture of large / complex organizations, enabling the delivery of exceptional results. He has worked in the Oil and Gas sector for over 30 years in diverse cultural environments across Europe, North Africa, the Middle East, India, Australia, and South East Asia. He is a petroleum engineer with Masters Degrees from Oxford University and Heriot Watt in the UK. He was the CEO of Drill search Energy, an Australian E&P company listed on the ASX, before their merger with Beach Energy. Prior to this he spent 16 years with BG Group where roles included global functional leadership for Well Engineering and Production Operations, Managing Director for BG's business interests in India and the Operations Director for BG's coal seam gas to LNG project in Queensland, Australia.

