

GI Weekly Newsletter

OCTOBER 25, 2018

ENOC Looks to Invest $2bn in Bangladesh Refinery Expansion

Trump Approves Plan to Drill Oil from Man-made Arctic Island

Saudi Arabia's Energy Transition Starts to Shape up

Regional Petchems to Grow by 60% by 2050, says ADNOC CEO

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

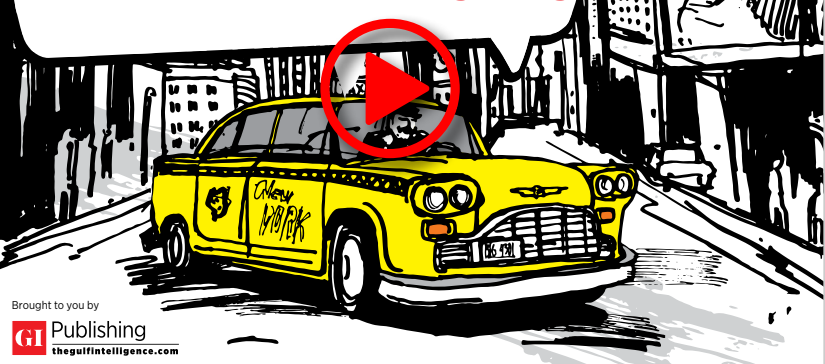

THE 3rd OMAN STUDENT AWARDS
FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF POST-GRADUATE EDUCATION

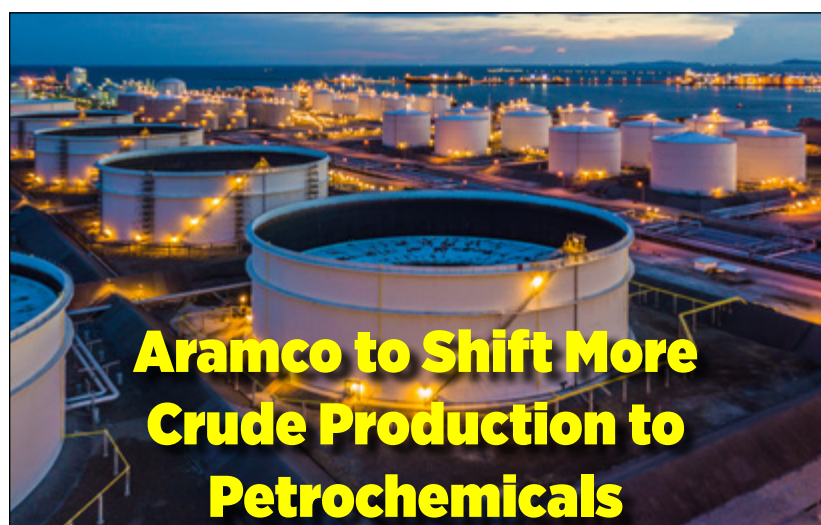

Myanmar to Auction off 31 New Oil and Gas Blocks

U.S. MID-TERM ELECTIONS: TAXI DRIVER INTERVIEW SERIES

Aramco to Shift More Crude Production to Petrochemicals

New Tech From Iceland Can Turn Carbon Dioxide into Fuel

IN NUMBERS

The US has suggested it could waive its 4 Nov 2018 sanction date should uncertainty remain on how to fill a deficit of Iran Oil. Will the waiver happen?

41% NO

59% YES

Source: GI Research; Q3 2018

TOP 3 TWEETS THIS WEEK

- Dubai Eye 103.8FM @DubaiEye1038FM · Oct 22
On #BizBreakfast next - we take a tour of the #US with #Dubai-based commentator @sean_ers. He's taking the economic temperature of the nation ahead of the mid-term elections #GlonTheRoad #dubaieye1038fm
- Platts Oil @PlattsOil · Oct 23
Asian residue market likely to stay strong on tight supply: sources plts.co/gcYk30mkYwq
- Gulf Intelligence @gulf_intel · Oct 22
#MiddleEast remains the largest #oil producer & the 2nd largest #gas producer, accounting for over 34% of global liquids production and 20% of gas production by 2040 @BP_Press #OOT

