

GI Weekly Newsletter

SEPTEMBER 27, 2018

EOR: Old Challenge, Fresh Eyes

PETRONAS

OPEC's Barkindo Calls for Cooperation Between OPEC and Non-OPEC Countries

Brent Benchmark Set for Revamp with Oil From Around the World

S&P Global
Platts

Iraq's SOMO Explores Asia Oil storage, Benchmark Price Options

ANNOUNCEMENT:

20TH EDITION

SiBCON 2018

SINGAPORE INTERNATIONAL BUNKERING
CONFERENCE AND EXHIBITION

2-5 October 2018 / Resorts World Sentosa, Singapore

Adnoc LNG Awards Dh3.16bn Construction Deal for Gas Development Expansion Project

GI

ENERGY
THINGS
TO THINK ABOUT...

HSBC UAE Aims to Hit Over $1bn Revenues in Next Three to Five Years

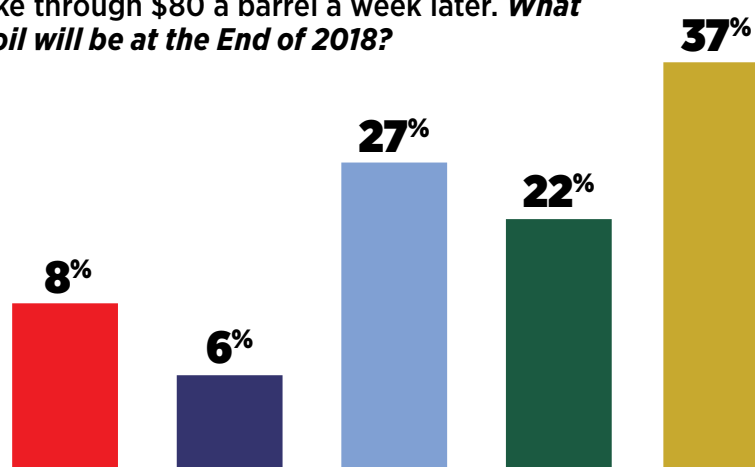

Aramco Confirms Leadership Boosts Commitment to Cut Greenhouse Gas Emission

IN NUMBERS

Global oil supply was firing on all cylinders in August, reaching a record 100 million barrels per day (bpd), the International Energy Agency revealed in its Oil Market Report published in the first week of September, and yet Brent crude oil still broke through $80 a barrel a week later. What price do you think Brent crude oil will be at the End of 2018?

- A. $60-$65
- B. $65-$70
- C. $70-$75
- D. $75-$80
- E. Above $80

Source: GI Research; Q3 2018

#ThorwbackThursday

The Gulf Intelligence Energy Markets Forum 2018

